Morning and eventide,
I miss thee from my side—
No hour goes by
But some sweet thought of thee,

And as the days depart, dness within my heart Still maketh moan: Ever it seems to say— Thou, Love, art far away, I am alone!

Wakens a sigh.

Oft in the silent night Cometh my lost delight, Radiant to see! Ah! but I wake again, Feeling that joy is vain, Absent from thee.

If I could fly away
Like a sweet bird to-day,
I'd haste to thee;
Far over hill and plain,
Over the bounding main,
My love to see.
